Are we missing any
from late 1990
onwards?

Initially, each issue of Around the Houses was produced with a massive voluntary commitment from a few, principally Clive, and contributions from many. NFHC staff played increasingly supportive roles from 1987. We made sure that we saved one copy of each issue for posterity and were happy to donate them when the possibility of setting up an archive at Bishopsgate was suggested. We have not taken the same care to keep in touch with ATH contributors (see separate listing). If you are still in touch with any of our contributors or others involved with us at the time, please forward this call for donations and ask them to get in touch.
